REDMOND, OREGON –

Tickets are on sale now for the Papé Cascade Chute Out presented by Central Oregon Heating, Plumbing and Cooling. These three days of exciting PRCA ProRodeo action in Redmond, Oregon will offer limited tickets to each of three separate performances. Thursday's Featured Rough Stock Sneak Peek, and Friday and Saturday night full rodeo performances, starting at 7:00pm nightly. Tickets for each performance are only $20.00, and available online at www.CascadeChuteOut.com

In an exciting move, the High Desert Stampede, Sisters Rodeo and Crooked River Roundup committees joined with Bridwell Pro Rodeos and Deschutes County Fair and Expo to bring Pro Rodeo back to Central Oregon in 2020. As only the 2nd PRCA Pro Rodeo on the west coast in 2020, this is an important event for competitors and fans, and will bring the nation's top talent to Central Oregon to compete for PRCA winnings.

Featuring all the traditional PRCA Rodeo events, the Cascade Chute Out also features the first of its kind, Team Challenge event; a challenge between three of the top PRCA Rodeos in the United States. This unique team challenge – rodeo vs rodeo and stock contractor vs stock contractor – in a two-go rodeo experience will be unlike any other. Be assured, you don't want to miss the excitement this September 15-19, 2020.

While this is certainly an unusual year, never has such a collaborative yet competitive effort existed, and this is possibly a once in a lifetime event!

With safety and health as the primary concern, Cascade Chute Out is working with state and local public health representatives to finalize an extensive safety plan.
